

Contents

Foreword	9
Introduction	11
Acknowledgments	12
Subscribers to Eglish Historical Society	14
Contributors' Biographies	18
The Right Arm	23
Early History
Eglish – Ancient and Modern	26
Antiquities of Eglish from Earliest Times to the Penal Era	33
The Townland Names of Eglish	50
Droim na Sealg	52
The Ulster Plantation and its Aftermath	53
Church History
The Baptist Community at Eglish	74
Derrygortreavy Parish Church	77
The Presbyterian Church at Eglish	84
St. Patrick's Parish, Eglish from the Penal Times	91
Poem composed in 1934	105
The Parochial House and the Curate's Nursery	106
Fairy and Folklore
Folktales from Cadian (1984)	110
Folktales from Cadian (Ulster Journal of Archaeology)	112
Maura and the Fairies	115
The Christmas Candle	116
Folklore and Tradition in the Brantry	117
Untitled poem by James Burke	125
Mayflower	126
The Man is Such a Phenomenon, Has no one Stoppt to Wonder?	127
Fraternities, Famine and Associations
The Brantry Boys of '98: The Lie of the Land	130
Faith and Fatherland	140
The Masons in Eglish	153
The Orange Order in Eglish	155
The Great Famine (1845–50): Its impact on the Townlands of Eglish	158
A Famine Relief Scheme	164
A meeting at Derrygortreavy Church April 2, 1914	165
Gaelic League in Eglish	166
From Courier & News , Boland L.O.L. 375, 14.7.1932	167
Pioneer Total Abstinence Association in Eglish	169

People 1

Arthur O'Neill (1734-1816), The Blind Bard of Tyrone	176
Arthur O'Neill from The Armagh Guardian , 21 April 1916	178
I'm Living in America	179
Patrick James O'Byrne, Dean of Armagh (1810-19), and the Contemporary Scene	180
Pat Donnelly	186
Thomas Reid's Travels	187

Education and Industry

Education in Eglisish in the Nineteenth Century	202
Derrylatinee Primary School	211
Eglisish New School (The Courier & News , 29.6.1933)	213
The Wee School on the Hill	214
The County of Tyrone	220
The Linen Industry and Mills in Eglisish	221
The Star of the Mulboy Hill	226
Shops and Workshops in Eglisish over the years	227

Families and Memories

The Byrne Family	234
St. Patrick's Parish – Some Family Reminiscences	241
Some Stories from Bygone Days	242
Old Tyrone	243
The Foxes of Cormullagh	244
The Hamills – A Family at Roan 1885-1935	245
An Emigrant's Farewell to Erin	258
A Penal Cross	259
Memories of the 1930s/1940s	262
The Hacketts and the Mullens	271
The Longs of Carrowcolman: 100 Years of Engineering	273
The Moore Family of Kilnacart	275
P. J. Moore Address	280
The Blackwater	281

People 2

Father Hughes of Eglisish (1846-1923)	284
An Saggart Mór	298
An Ode to Eglisish and its Soggart Aroon	299
William Thomas Latimer, 1842-1919, Churchman and Historian	300
Mick Daly of Sessiagh	302
P. J. O'Connor Duffy – Teacher and Poet	303
'P. J. O'Connor Duffy Again!' (from The Courier & News , 21.8.1930)	321

Sport and Recreation in Eglish

Road Bowls	325
Country Sports	328
Allen's Wedding	336
Gaelic Games	337
Other Outdoor Sports	354
Indoor Sports	364

Some More Glimpses of the 20th Century

Extract from The County Tyrone Directory for 1902	378
World War I	379
David Somerville	382
Firinmeach	383
The Sacrifice	384
The Killybracken Neighbours	385
'English War Memorial Unveiled' (from Tyrone Courier , 8.7.1920)	386
An Incident from the Troubles of the 1920s – The Caulfield Arms Raid	388
Alexander's Big Straw Stack	389
'English and Brantry Notes' (from Tyrone Courier , 8.7.1926)	390
Ruth Hanna Dickson	391
Dr. Thomas J. Kerr	392
The Hills of Brantry	393
Continuity and Change: A Socio-Economic Study of Eglish	394
Bishop Bloomer	401
Sir Francis Verner Wylie	403
Folklore and Tradition – Keeping the Flame Alive	404
Mabel Nelson	409
Derrygortreavy	410
Cormac McAnallen	412

Graveyards/WWI Casualties/Heads of Households Survey

St. Patrick's Old Cemetery – map	416
Eglish Old Cemetery	417
Early Families recalled in Placenames and Stone	421
Graveyard inscriptions – Eglish Old Cemetery	451
St. Patrick's New Cemetery – map	466
Graveyard Inscriptions (Church of Ireland) – map	467
Graveyard Inscriptions (Presbyterian) – map	468
World War I – Eglish Roll of Honour	469
Heads of Households in Eglish: 1664–1911	474